CALL – BLEND INTENSIVE PROGRAM
UNIVERSITY OF BEIRA INTERIOR

Do you want to be an active member of the European project?
This opportunity is for YOU!

The University of Beira Interior is organizing from the 09th June to the 13th June 2025 an intensive course dedicated to the following theme: "Democracy and Political Communication – the role of social media".

The program consists of a diverse set of sessions/classes, bringing together several national and international experts, in a teaching-learning model that aims to provide trainees with tools to understand the singularity of the relationship between communication and politics and the new models of political participation through social networks.

This is the time to experience a truly international week, immersing yourself in the culture of the Portuguese countryside, but benefiting from an international atmosphere.

We are waiting for YOU!
